

Jewish New Teacher Project (JNTP) offers support to Jewish day school administrators who are new to administration and have supervisory responsibilities. This is a valuable opportunity for professional reflection, self-assessment, and growth at the start of a new role.

THE PROGRAM: JNTP brings world-class professional development pioneered by the award-winning researched-based work of the New Teacher Center. JNTP offers two program models: Cohort-based and Individual Coaching. JNTP’s comprehensive administrator support is responsive to the culture, context, and needs of the individual school. Areas of focus include:

LEADERSHIP | CULTURE | SUPERVISION

- › Establishing leadership and implementing vision
- › Relationship and trust building
- › Influencing school and staff culture
- › Implementing change
- › Teacher observation and feedback
- › Data collection and assessment
- › Setting professional goals
- › Recruitment and hiring
- › Time management
- › Communication
- › Having hard conversations
